

APRIL ~ Must Have Beauty Products

I thought it might be fun to share a post each month highlighting my 5 favorite beauty finds! This post will be kicking off some beauty and fashion posts I have coming your way, so stay tuned. ;)

Let's get started!

1. *The Healing Garden - natural Epsom salt body scrub:

I was looking for something to get my feet summer ready and found this product at Walmart! I purchased the scent coconut and it smells amazing. It has a sweet fruity smell, but isn't overpowering. My feet felt so soft after using this scrub! You can purchase this for $5.92. Look how darling the packaging is!

2. *Burt's Bee's tinted lip balm:

This stuff is AMAZING! I love that I can wear chapstick and still have a pop of color on my lips. This is perfect for days when I'm staying around the house yet want to look nice for when my husband comes home. ;) You can purchase this at most stores or gas stations and it usually runs around $4.

I purchased this in the color rose.

3. Gold Arrow Necklace:

I wanted to include this little necklace because it is just darling and I found it for $2.88 in the jewelry section at Walmart! I'm not a huge jewelry person so I love when I find a good piece for a great price!

4. *Bodycology – Coconut Hibiscus:

Most of you are familiar with the bodycology brand from Walmart, but if you haven't tried this scent I would highly recommend giving it another try! You cannot beat the $3.97 a bottle price and this scent is one of their best! I purchased the last one on the shelf, so I know I'm not the only person that thinks the coconut hibiscus is the PERFECT summer scent!

5. *PHYSICIANS FORMULA – Powder Palette Mineral Glow Pearls:

I saved this product for last because I am literally SO excited about it! I've been looking for a drugstore powder highlighter for years and haven't found anything I like. I am so happy I stumbled across this product just in time for summer! It gives the perfect shimmer highlight! This is by far the BEST drugstore highlighter I've come across! This was my priciest find at $12.83 and I purchased it at Walmart.
